SUNDAY TIMES 26 JANUARY £100,000 LEGACY TO THE ZOO

MOTHER'S PORTRAIT TO BE HONOURED PLACE IN BOARDROOM

About £100,000 will pass to the Zoological Society of London under the Will of Mr George d'Arroyave Lopes, of Egerton Place, Chelsea. Mr Lopes left £121,339 gross, with net personalty £119,833.

Bequests in his Will include, on the death of his wife:-

Funds producing £300 per year to his brother John for life, and then for St.Bartholomew's Hospital for the encouragement of medical and clinical research.

His collection of Chinese bronzes, a large Japanese screen by Ritmo, and a gold embossed repeater watch to the Victoria and Albert Museum.

The residue of the property is left to the Zoological Society on the condition that they hang in their boardroom the picture of his mother and shall keep up in good repair the family graves.

Should these conditions not be fulfilled, then the ultimate residue is to go to St. Bartholomew's Hospital.

"Mr Lopes was not a Fellow of the Society, although he took a great interest in the gardens." Sir Peter Chalmers Mitchell, the secretary of the Society, told a Press representative yesterday.

"I estimate that the residue of the estate will be almost £70,000, but until the estate has been wound up, and legacies arranged, I cannot say definitely."

"The money is not earmarked for any purpose, except the maintenance and improvement of the Society."

Mr George Lopes was deputy Chairman of the Metropolitan Association for the Improvement of Dwellings for the Industrious Classes.,
